

SPUN COTTON CUTIES & CREEPERS with Sarah Hand

SUPPLY LIST

- Aluminum foil
- Masking tape
- Floral wire or other thin wire
- Wire cutters
- Cotton balls - the biggest ones you can find in the drugstore
- White glue (Mod Podge, Elmers, Tacky Glue, etc.)
- A small bowl
- A flat paintbrush (1/2" wide works well)
- Thin cardboard (like a cereal box)
- Scissors
- Hot glue (not totally necessary but helpful)
- Acrylic paints of any kind (fine art, craft paints, acrylic gouache, etc.)

The graphic is enclosed in a thick orange border. On the left, there are two yellow stars and a yellow bird icon above the text 'WINDOWSILL WORKSHOPS' in blue. Below this is a small mouse puppet with a pink shirt and black pants. A blue arrow points from the puppet towards the center. In the center is a circular photo of Sarah Hand, a woman with glasses and a floral shirt, standing in front of a brick wall. To the right of the photo is the text 'with Sarah Hand' in blue, with a yellow star above it. Below the photo is a small mouse puppet with a blue shirt. At the bottom right is the Marco Tantau logo, which consists of a yellow circle with a white 'U' and the text 'MARCO TANTAU' below it. At the bottom, the text 'SPUN COTTON CUTIES & CREEPERS' is written in yellow, with a yellow star to the left, and 'with Sarah Hand' in red script to the right.

with Sarah Hand

with Margo Tantau & Friends

MARCO TANTAU

SPUN COTTON CUTIES
& CREEPERS with Sarah Hand